

NATURE at its best!

Experience the beauty of monsoon at Phaltan, a quick getaway at Satara district of Maharashtra

Harsha Wadhvani
connect@absoluteindianews.com

Phaltan, a small village in the district of Satara, Maharashtra, is one of the best places to visit this monsoon. The place not only mesmerises with its breathtaking waterfalls but also with the sight of the fort situated at its highest peak. If you are looking to escape this over-crowded and pollution-full city for fresh air and clean environment, Phaltan is definitely a must-go for you! Check out the following experiences you can have when you visit this village...

FARM TOURISM IN PHALTAN

Visit the largest organic farm in Satara on a bullock cart, learn traditional techniques of farming and experience Zebra, Gladiola and Rose plantations. For the ones who want to experience sugarcane farming, you can visit the nearby sugarcane fields and pomegranate orchards to learn about the farm culture.

city. It being on great proximity with the fort, the view is extremely amazing.

THOSEGHAR WATERFALLS

During the season, guests can visit the spectacular Thoseghar waterfalls. The place is incredibly pictorial that incorporates a series of small and big waterfalls. Once you go there you won't feel like going back home.

AUNDH MUSEUM

For art lovers, Aundh museum exhibits some of the rare paintings and sculptures by well known Indian and European artists. The museum is one of its kind and a good option to visit.

JAKSON INNS PHALTAN

India's first three Star LEED GREEN platinum rated hotel. As part of its initiative to promote environmentally and culturally friendly tourism, it is presently promoting eco and village tourism in the district. The rooms are tailored for the single female traveller and for the physically challenged. The hotel boasts a contemporary bar, a vibrant multi-cuisine restaurant and 24 hour in-room dining service. It has both indoor and outdoor recreation facilities suited for families. A full service gym and treatment room is also available.

ROYAL PHALTAN

RAJWADA

Phaltan Rajwada is the former residence of the Phaltan royal family.

The grandeur of this palace along with its architectural wonder is a very special attraction. You get to see the actual furniture, the art work of the time. Also, there are beautiful paintings portraying the generations of the royal family.

WINDMILL FARMS AMONG OTHERS

Hundreds of gigantic windmills are set amidst the adjoining hills and lush green